

Focusing the gospel

The Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time begins with a Sunday that offers pastoral comfort to us all. In the Zechariah reading, the Lord promises Israel, and us, a savior who “shall proclaim peace to the nations.” Matthew’s gospel points to Jesus as the source of that peace, as he affirms his identity as the Son of God. Jesus offers himself as a relief from the burdens of our days, promising “you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

We will celebrate Memorials this week of St. Benedict and St. Kateri Tekakwitha.

Matthew’s gospel this week is filled with healing and invitations. Jesus offers a cure and courage for the woman with hemorrhage, raises an official’s daughter from dead and as “his heart was moved with pity” he continues to cure every disease and illness. Along with these stories of healing in the First Gospel, the call from Jesus begins. “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest...”

Jesus summons the apostles and sends them out to continue his work, but curing illness and driving out unclean spirits. He tells them how to be a laborer in his field and cautions them of the challenges ahead. On Saturday, he offers a tender example of God’s love for us in the story God’s love for even the lowly sparrow. “Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows,” He concludes.
