New Business

Richard Johnson brought up adding a Faith aspect to the meeting beyond what we currently do.

Dan Borst like the set up of today's meeting with a short social time and snack before starting.

Bert Purcell made the suggestion that if someone would like to have a short lesson on a topic they themselves would like to know more about

Mike Irvine Suggested we might even as father if he would like to talk to us.

Jose Tejada brought up that there will be a couple of school kid dads working in the school

Saturday morning. He would like some help hanging some new white boards and maybe a few other maintenance items while school is not in session.

If you are interested in helping please contact Jose Tejada (316-619-7727) he will start at 7:00am

Bert Purcell gave an update on fantasy football

Caleb Edelman and Brad McDanel are battling it out for first place.

Mike McDanel and Bert Purcell are competing for third

Dan Borst brought up the idea of selling tomato plants as a fund raiser, would need to plant in January if we wanted to do this. This idea was tabled to find more information.
